- ☐ ½ teaspoon dried oregano
- ☐ ½ teaspoon red-pepper flakes
- ☐ 2 pounds boneless skinless chicken thighs

For the Salad:

- ☐ 2 cups fresh arugula
- ☐ Fresh parsley torn
- ☐ ½ cup cherry tomatoes halves
- ☐ ½ cup crumbled feta cheese
- ☐ ½ cup diced cucumber
- ☐ ½ cup sliced red onion

Lemon Oregano Vinaigrette

- ☐ 1 lemon juiced
- ☐ 2 teaspoons champagne vinegar
- ☐ ⅓ cup olive oil
- ☐ 2 cloves garlic minced
- ☐ ½ shallot minced
- ☐ kosher salt to taste
- ☐ fresh oregano

Recipe

1. Whisk apple cider vinegar, white sugar, kosher salt with 1 cup water in a small bowl until sugar and salt dissolve.
2. Place onion in a jar; pour vinegar mixture over. Let sit at room temperature for 1 hour before using. Also, it can be made 2 weeks ahead. Cover and chill. Drain onions before using.
3. In a large zip-top bag, combine the lemon juice, ½ cup olive oil, garlic, salt, pepper, cumin, paprika, oregano and red-pepper flakes. Add the chicken, zip the top of the bag and give it a quick shake to combine. Refrigerator for at least 1 hour and up to 12 hours.
4. Pre-heat a cast iron to medium high heat. Remove the chicken from the marinade and grill each chicken thigh for 4-5 minutes on each side until done. Remove and set aside to rest.
5. Slice the chicken against the grain into thin strips and transfer back into the skillet and sauté for 2 minutes until just slightly crispy around the edges.
6. Transfer the chicken to a large bowl and toss to with the salad ingredients and serve with the Lemon Oregano Vinaigrette
