Sheet Pan Chicken Gyros (4 Servings)

From: Joy to the Food

Ingredients

For the sheet pan

- ☐ 5 boneless skinless chicken thighs (usually 1 pack has 5)
- ☐ 1 can chickpeas (drained and patted dry)
- ☐ 3 cloves garlic
- ☐ ¼ c avocado oil (or olive oil)
- ☐ ¼ c lemon juice
- ☐ ½ teaspoon salt and pepper (each)

For the salad

- ☐ ½ english cucumber (or ⅔ standard cucumber)
- ☐ ¼ red onion (diced)
- ☐ ¼ c baby tomatoes (halved)
- ☐ 1 tablespoon zatar (or oregano)
- ☐ 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- ☐ salt to taste

Roasted garlic sauce

- ☐ roasted garlic cloves from above (or 3 cloves fresh minced garlic)
- ☐ ⅓ c plain greek yogurt
- ☐ 2 tablespoon dried or fresh dill (chopped finely)
- ☐ 2 teaspoon lemon juice (can add more as desired)
- ☐ salt and pepper to taste

Recipe

1. Toss the 5 boneless skinless chicken thighs in ¼ c avocado oil, ¼ c lemon juice, and ½ teaspoon salt and pepper and store in the fridge while the oven preheats.
2. Drain and dry the chickpeas (to ensure they get crispy when baked) using towels or paper towels really well.
3. Preheat the oven to 425 degrees and grab a large sheet tray. Place the chicken evenly spread out on the tray and then sprinkle the 1 can chickpeas around. Put the 3 cloves garlic on whenever they fit. Drizzle with a little more oil, salt, and pepper.
4. Bake for 25-30 minutes. After 25 minutes, remove the garlic from the pan and set aside. Then, broil the chicken and chickpeas on high for 5-10 minutes until the top is crispy and the internal temp of the chicken is at least 165 degrees.
5. While this bakes, make the salad by dicing and combining the ½ english cucumber, ¼ red onion, ¼ c baby tomatoes, 1 tablespoon zatar (or oregano), 1 tablespoon lemon juice, and salt to taste. Store in the fridge until ready to use.
6. Blend or mix together the roasted garlic cloves from above, ⅓ c plain greek yogurt, 2 tablespoon dried or fresh dill, 2 teaspoon lemon juice, and salt and pepper to taste. If mixing, dice the garlic first.
7. Chop the chicken (if desired) and serve with the salad, yogurt sauce, rice, in a pita pocket, or just enjoy as is.
