From: Nourish and Fete

Ingredients

- ☐ 1 pound baby potatoes
- ☐ 2 tablespoons olive oil divided
- ☐ 2 teaspoons Italian seasoning divided
- ☐ 1 teaspoon kosher salt divided
- ☐ freshly-cracked black pepper
- ☐ 4 links sausage
- ☐ 2 cups broccoli florets
- ☐ 1 bell pepper any color
- ☐ fresh parsley, rosemary, or other herbs optional garnish

Recipe

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. Line a large rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Chop potatoes into 3/4-inch pieces and place in a large bowl. Add 1 tablespoon olive oil, 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and a few cracks of pepper. Toss to coat, then spread the potatoes in a single layer on the baking sheet, leaving space between them. Roast for 10 minutes.
3. While the potatoes start roasting, slice the sausages into 1" coins, cut any thick stems from the broccoli florets, and chop the pepper into 1" pieces. Combine these ingredients in the same bowl you used for the potatoes. Add the remaining 1 tablespoon olive oil, 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and a few more cracks of pepper. Toss well.
4. After the potatoes have been in for 10 minutes, take out the pan, push potatoes to the outer edge, and add the mixture of sausage, broccoli, and peppers to the empty space in the middle. Return to the oven and roast another 18-20 minutes, until the sausage is crisp and the veggies are tender.
5. Sprinkle with chopped parsley, rosemary, or other herbs as desired. Serve and enjoy!
